“The Robe” aka Robe

If our fandom ever had a superhero – it would be “The Robe”!

From humble beginnings on TikTok and Instagram as @therobenewmoon, he now has followers from all over the world. His superpower? Besides making us laugh with his antics in his screen-worn robe from New Moon, his generosity! From helping to promote, officiate and serve beverages at @JustBellaSwan’s wedding recreation to raising money and toys for Christmas for children’s hospitals and Forks Community Hospital. And going live on Instagram just to keep us company when we are wanting to be with our Fandom Family, Robe is there for us! “The Robe” will be at most of our free and ticketed events, to entertain us and make us laugh! He has never met a stranger, so this gig is right up his “Volterra Alley”! And make sure to keep an eye out for his sidekick “The Mini-Robe”...

“Twilight Renaissance Faire” Fandom Family Party

We will be joined by Twilight Saga Actors Billy Burke, Maggie Grace, Erik Odom, and Brandon Christy, our official FTF Cosplayers – The Olympic Coven, ShAro Di Volterra, and The Volterra Coven, and our festival mascot – The Robe!

What is the Twilight Renaissance to you? For some it’s going back to where it began - midnight book & movie lines, Hot Topic, Dazzled by Twilight, premieres, red carpets, conventions. Maybe you were in middle school, high school, college, or just plain adulting. When it was as simple as Team Edward or Team Jacob! For others it might be discovering a new obsession during a pandemic, creating content and memes for social media, making brand new friends, and finding their place in the fandom. And for others it’s “living” through a true renaissance period – speaking of the Volturi, of course!

Whatever those memories are that just make us all warm and fuzzy - we want to bring those back! This celebration really encompasses so many different facets of our fandom. Whether you are into cosplay, books, movies, Ren Faires which let’s be real – some of our vampires were around during that era!

Whatever gives you those feelings of what the Saga has meant to you over the years and now, let’s celebrate it! So dress in your best interpretation of the Twilight Renaissance – whatever that means to you, and join us in downtown Forks, Washington for a fun, whimsical evening hosted by our Renaissance Masters – the Volturi!

Most of the party will be outdoors and under tents, with heaters so plan accordingly. We will enjoy beautiful decorations from Kim’s Creations & Tulle Shed, light snacks and desserts from Catering with the Castellanos. Beer, wine, and spirits from the Whiskey Wagon, cash or card accepted. We’ll have a traditional style photo booth, and new this year – a 360° booth!

Our wonderful DJ Robotix will be rocking the dance floor inside so brush up on your line dances!

Where: Rainforest Arts Center (RAC), 35 N. Forks Avenue. Parking is available.

When: 9 pm - Midnight. All ages are welcome!

How much? Included in your VIT Ticket or available a la carte for $125 per person online. Tickets will be available at will call during event, while supplies last. Cash only please.

Alcoholic beverages off the menu. Valid ID required for alcohol. NO OUTSIDE ALCOHOL ALLOWED.

Sunrise Hike to Rialto Beach

This isn't an organized group hike, but if you want to experience Rialto Beach and Hole in the Wall at low tide (-1.3), this is a great time to do it. There are other ways to cross, all at your own risk. Where: Rialto Beach, end of Mora Road. Parking available but limited.

How much? Free. There is no parking pass or Park pass required.
