Forever Twilight in Forks Festival Entry

Unlike a convention, our festival does not require a ticket to attend. We list "How much?" on our schedule, and if there is a cost to enter, it's listed in RED. If it states "Included in your VIT Ticket" that indicates it's a ticketed event, and the event is included in your VIT Ticket. Tickets are available online until July 31st, while supplies last. Some tickets are available during will call, cash only please.

The majority of our events are FREE and OPEN TO ALL.

Forever Twilight in Forks Festival Guidelines

- All special guests are announced when confirmed, and all agreements include clauses allowing them to cancel if they land film and/or television work. In the rare case of a cancellation, we always strive to replace special guests. We cannot refund tickets for event admission based on special guest cancellation.
- Besides the Autograph/Photograph Events, photos and selfies with special guests are at their discretion.
- Autographs by special guests are only allowed at Autograph/Photograph Events.
- FTF cast members are here for our enjoyment, but please remember to respect their space.
- Dogs and other animals/pets are not allowed at any event where food is served, at any indoor event, including Forks High School. If you have a service animal, please be advised that you are responsible for the animal's behavior and per the Washington State Human Rights Commission's guidelines "if an animal exhibits disruptive, poor or unsanitary behavior, it would not be considered a trained service animal, and can be removed." Please note that this requirement applies to outdoor events where food is being served or is available.
- Our events and venues are smoke-free environments, which includes the use of e-cigarettes.
- We strive to present all events on the festival schedule, but some may be subject to change or cancellation due to weather or other circumstances beyond our control, including hazardous air quality.
- Wi-Fi is always free around the clock at the Forks Visitor Information Center parking 24/7.
- If you have any questions or concerns, please contact VIT Guest Services at 360-640-0727 or a member of the FTF Planning Committee or a member of our security team.
- Our policy does not allow refunds on tickets once purchased.
- Please do not drive impaired. If you need assistance to your motel or lodging establishment, please let someone on the FTF Planning Committee, VIT Guest Services, or FTF Security know.
- Our FTF Security is provided for your safety. Our security team will remove you from the event and void your ticket, with no refund, if you harass FTF cast members, special guests, actors, festival staff, volunteers, or attendees, or bring outside alcohol to any of our events or parties.

"Revisiting Twilight: Thinking About Fashion, Celebrities, and Media A Decade Later" Angie Chau will take you on journey to explore how the immense popularity of the Twilight novels, along with their blockbuster film adaptations, was linked to innovative fashion marketing practices and celebrity culture in the late 2000s. Discover how the literary mediascape has shifted in the last ten years, paying particular attention to subtle changes in how we read and what we read, more dramatic transformations in accepted viewing practices and screen adaptation culture, new research approaches to web sources and internet archives, and the connections between everyday material culture and popular literature.

Angie Chau is associate professor of literature and film in the Department of Pacific and Asian Studies at the University of Victoria, and the author of Paris and the Art of Transposition: Early Twentieth Century Sino-French Encounters (U of Michigan Press, 2023).
